Community Resource People

Most people are more than willing to share talent, interest, and knowledge of some special area such as

- displaying and explaining an interesting collection or hobby;
- sharing occupational and job-related experience and information;
- showing slides or movies and/or artifacts from travels;
- teaching skills to children (e.g., watercolor, crafts, etc.);
- serving as a resource person for an individual student seeking information on a particular topic.
-

Type	Name	Phone #/ Email	Notes